Invitation from Ian Thompson, Chief Executive, British APCO

BAPCO is going from strength to strength with increasing membership from both the user and the supplier communities and variety of events now firmly established in the Public Safety calendar.

Our November event, now branded as part of our Satellite Series, returns to St James' Park in Newcastle in November 2019. This event is ever-popular with delegates and exhibitors alike, providing the perfect mix of education and networking for all attendees. Join BAPCO members and other sector professionals to showcase the latest products, ideas and initiatives, exchange ideas and information and network with likeminded individuals in the professional yet relaxed atmosphere for which BAPCO is well known.

We will once again be providing high quality speakers to provide the latest sector updates and information.

I'd like you to join us in 'Connecting, Networking and Informing' our community and improving Public Safety for all.

British APCO

British APCO is acknowledged as THE leading UK based Association for all professionals using or developing Public Safety Technology

As a not-for-profit organisation, British APCO is an independent organisation that provides a forum for professionals in the field of public safety technology to exchange information, ideas and experiences. In partnership with industry it maintains regular liaison with suppliers and other commercial bodies, such as consultants, to monitor developments in technology, new techniques and major programmes.

British APCO members are an important part of a worldwide network of public safety communications and information technology professionals. Individuals' experience, knowledge and expertise combined with that of other members worldwide helps to 'achieve the goal of improving Public Safety Technology.

Delegate Profile

The 2018 event drew an audience of over 400 attendees involved in public safety communications, including members from the Public Sector, Private Sector, Users, Suppliers and Consultants.

Exhibition Stands

During the event, there will be a dedicated exhibition area where companies can make the most of the meeting in person with delegates. This is a fantastic way to strike up important relationships and start discussions. In an age where we rely so much on digital media to contact potential customers and new associates, the BAPCO Satellite Series offers a meeting of minds.

On the 13th & 14th November, delegates will mingle in the exhibition area upon arrival, during coffee breaks, lunch and the welcome reception.

Entitlements include

- Table with 2 chairs & cloth
- Access to power if needed (PAT tested extension leads must be provided by each company)
- Company name and stand number on the exhibition page on the official event website
- Refreshments for 2 exhibition staff on both event days and lunch on day 1
- Attendance at the welcome reception for 2 exhibition staff to network informally with delegates

Category 1: (Annual Turnover over £2m)

£2,275 + VAT

Category 2: (Annual Turnover below £2m)

£1,275 + VAT

*£100 discount available for previous exhibitors
